CELEBRATE THE CIVIL RIGHTS YEAR

Harvey Milk was the first openly gay elected official in California history and a civil rights pioneer. As a Supervisor in San Francisco, Milk worked to pass one of the first gay rights ordinances in the country, a prototype for what was to come at the state level. He was instrumental in helping to defeat an initiative that would have banned gays and lesbians from teaching in public schools. The State and Consumer Services Agency and the Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DFEH) honored Milk's memory with the Civil Rights Hero Award at the Fair 'Employment and Housing Act's (FEHA) 50th anniversary kick-off at the State Capitol. Civil rights supporters are invited to collaborate with the DFEH throughout the FEHA's 50th anniversary in 2009. See updated monthly events at www.dfeh.ca.gov.
