On August 28, 1963, the March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom assembled in front of the Washington Monument in Washington, D.C. The march, which was attended by 250,000 protesters, was a crucial milestone in the American civil rights movement.

The California Fair Employment and Housing Act (FEHA) is the State law that protects Californians from employment and housing discrimination. The California Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DFEH) investigates, mediates, and prosecutes violations of the FEHA. 2009 marks the 50th anniversary of the Act. Civil rights supporters are invited to collaborate with the DFEH throughout the FEHA's 50th anniversary in 2009. See updated monthly events at www.dfeh.ca.gov.
