ABOUT THE EMPLOYMENT ROUND TABLE OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

The Employment Round Table in Southern California began in 1983 in partnership with the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DFEH). Employment Round Tables are composed of volunteers from business, public and private employers, and from labor organizations. Their purpose is to create an awareness of the problems of discrimination, harassment, and retaliation in employment. The goal of the Employment Round Tables is to reduce discrimination and promote equal opportunity.

The objectives of the Employment Round Tables are to:

- Enhance communications between the Department and employers, labor organizations, and other entities covered by the FEHA and the laws the DFEH enforces.
- Provide forums that promote education, advocacy and understanding of anti-discrimination laws and practices.

The Employment Round Tables provide:

- Seminars and conferences on discrimination, harassment, and retaliation in employment.
- Information on DFEH activities.
