DEFINITIONS

Advocacy/Legal Services	Assistance and/or representation in obtaining access to benefits, services and programs to which a consumer may be entitled.
Assistive Technology	Any assistive technology device, that is, any item, piece of equipment or product system that is used to increase, maintain or improve functional capabilities of individuals with disabilities and any assistive technology service that assists an individual with a disability in the selection, acquisition or use of an assistive technology device.
Children's Services (Under age 14)	The provision of specific IL services designed to serve individuals with significant disabilities under the age of 14.
Communication Services	Services directed to enable consumers to better communicate, such as interpreter services, training in communication equipment use, Braille instruction, and reading services.
Counseling & Related Services	These include information sharing, psychological services of a non-psychiatric, non-therapeutic nature, parent-to-parent services, and related services.
Family Services	Services provided to the family members of an individual with a significant disability when necessary for improving the individual's ability to live and function more independently, or ability to engage or continue in employment. Such services may include respite care.
Housing Home Modification and Shelter Services	These services are related to securing housing or shelter adaptive housing services (including appropriate accommodations to and modifications of any space used to serve, or occupied by individuals with significant disabilities). Note: A CIL may not provide housing or shelter as an IL service on either a temporary or long term basis unless the housing or shelter is incidental to the overall operation of the CIL and is provided to any individual for a period not to exceed eight weeks during any six-month period.
IL Skills Training and Life Skills Training	These may include instruction to develop independent living skills in areas such as personal care, coping, financial management, social skills and household management. This may also include education and training necessary for living in the community and participating in community activities.
Information & Referral (I&R) Services	Identify all individuals who requested this type of assistance. This is the only service (other than services to family members) that may be provided to all individuals, whether or not the individual has a disability. Some entities record this service using strokes on an answering pad without opening a CSR, others create a CSR or other such file for future contact and outreach.
Mental Restoration Services	Psychiatric restoration services including maintenance on psychotropic medication, psychological services, and treatment management for substance abuse.
